Just one week to go for Marston Vale Line £1 ticket offer

London Northwestern Railway is encouraging passengers to take advantage of the £1 tickets on the Marston Vale Line, with less than one week to go before the offer ends on Saturday 16th November.

Under the offer, a single journey between any two stations on the Marston Vale Line costs just £1 for adults and 50p for children.

The offer was first launched in February 2024 to celebrate the resumption of a full timetable on the Marston Vale Line, which consists of 12 stops across Bedfordshire's rolling countryside, connecting Bedford and Bletchley.

The full hourly timetable has now been in operation for nine months, with more than 184,000 people travelling on the line since the offer was introduced. The promotion represents a discount of up to 90% in comparison to the standard fare for a one-way journey.

Jonny Wiseman, customer experience director for London Northwestern Railway, said: “As the ticket offer enters its final week, we want to thank all our passengers who have taken a discounted journey in the past nine months. The response to the offer has been fantastic, and we’re delighted to see so many enjoying this picturesque route, whether they’re commuting or travelling for leisure.”

The full Marston Vale Line timetable sees hourly services running in each direction between Bedford and Bletchley from Monday-Saturday, including bank holidays.
