London Northwestern Railway: Passengers urged to check journeys ahead of industrial action next week

Passengers travelling with London Northwestern Railway (LNR) are being urged to check their journeys and plan ahead of industrial action next week.

Members of train driver union ASLEF have announced their intention to stage strike action on Friday 5 April. No LNR services will operate on any route as a result.

In addition, members of ASLEF have announced their intention to stage industrial action in the form of an overtime ban on Thursday 4 April, Saturday 6 April, Monday 8 April and Tuesday 9 April. Services will be subject to short-notice cancellation as a result.

Jonny Wiseman, LNR customer experience director, said:

“It is disappointing that industrial action is continuing to affect passengers’ journeys. Passengers should check their journeys before setting out and plan ahead as services will be subject to disruption.

“Anyone holding a ticket for travel on a strike day can use their ticket on a different day or claim a full refund.”

The following alterations will apply on Thursday 4 April, Saturday 6 April, Monday 8 April and Tuesday 9 April:

- Buses will replace trains on the Marston Vale Line between Bletchley and Bedford
- Buses will replace trains on the Abbey Line between Watford Junction and St Albans Abbey
- Fewer services will operate in the morning and evening between London Euston and Northampton
- No services will operate on any LNR route on Friday 5 April
